Please find below and/or attached an Office communication concerning this application or proceeding.

The time period for reply, if any, is set in the attached communication.

ADVISORY ACTION

1. This Advisory Action is responsive to 5 April 2010.
2. The applicant argues that the perturbing of bins is patentably different than what is citing in the prior art by Muralidhar.

The examiner respectfully disagrees.

The examiner notes that the applicant has not invoked lexicography in the specification as to what a "bin" is. Muralidhar teaches or suggests a "bin" because Muralidhar teaches storing the answers to survey questions.
